THE SPEAKERS

The Speakers, although this has been a year of hard work, feel that they have lived up to the plans made in their first meeting. Attempting to interest girls in night school, the Speakers visited all the factories in which girls were employed and talked to them about the opening offered them there for continuing their education.

The Speakers were also interested in getting cleaner streets and alleys in New Albany and, to advertise and publish this movement, they took many pictures of unsightly places about town.

Besides their civic work, the Speakers have kept in close touch with school life. They have given receptions for some of the organizations and have been instrumental in getting prominent business women to talk to the girls of the opportunities open to them in the commercial world.

After taking first awards in both the Sapinsky and Tyler contests, the Speakers closed a successful year with their victory in the debate with the Boys' High School of Louisville.

WRANGLERS

The Wranglers have spent an enjoyable year in carrying out the purpose of the club—that of debating. Under the leadership of two energetic Presidents, John Mitchell, '15½, and Harry Voyles, '16, many important things were undertaken. The debate with Huntingburg ended in a close victory for the opposing team. On account of the lack of time, the club was disappointed in the industrial survey of the city, under the direction of the Chamber of Commerce, but look forward to taking it up in the future. The Wranglers were well represented in both the state discussion contest and the Sapinsky extemporaneous speaking contest, taking first place in the former and second place in the latter.

SODALITAS LATINA

The Sodalitas Latina terminated their successful work of the year '15½ and '16 with a Roman feast to which a few fortunate guests, other than the club members, were invited. Augustus himself would have felt at home in old N. A. H. S. in the halls, among ferns, flowers, statues and beautiful fountains, spraying cut upon growing plants. The guests, breathing the air heavy with incense, easily imagined themselves in the atrium of a house in Old Rome.

During the last few months the club has adopted a novel little pin. They can now be identified by a small silver emblem made in the form of a scroll with the engraved letters S. L.

Since the time of its organization, the "Sodalitas Latina" has been known for its successful and industrious club members. Much originality has been shown in the club this year in translating popular songs into Latin and making unique contests. The programs of every meeting have been interesting and instructive.

The consuls who have carried on this successful year were:

'15½—Helen Pierce, Edgar McKown.

'16—Catherine Lee, Hazel Rilling.

THE GERMAN CLUB

In the year 15½-16, the German Club has upheld and even added to its reputation as one of the most active organizations in school.

The German Club has always been noted for its entertaining and instructive meetings but this year it has been unusually successful in this phase of its work. A novel plan of having the programs furnished by the different German classes as represented in the club proved to be a valuable experiment, for in this way a much wider field was covered and everyone was given a chance to show his originality.

Much advance was made in the use of the German language in the meetings, owing to the fact that Miss Rockenbach offered a silver medal to the person making the most progress in German conversation during the year. After much rivalry and zest in the contest, the medal was awarded to Ruth Borkenheim at the last meeting of the year.

Although no open meeting has been given, the German Club is not going back on its custom of having one big social event and it is planning for a picnic up on Silver Hills, to which all members and those who have assisted the club in any way, will be invited.

SENIOR BLOTTER

ORCHESTRA

This has been an unusually successful year for the orchestra. The work of the first term culminated in the recital given just before the holidays. This was the only appearance of the orchestra before the public because most of the time was spent in constructive work in the regular practicing.

The biggest thing of the season was the accompaniment for the opera "Martha," early this spring. Nothing so difficult has ever been undertaken in the history of the organization and if Mr. Embs had not been sure that the orchestra was capable of it, the public would have been deprived of a splendid program.

Another thing which made the year an unusual one for the orchestra was the trip to Charlestown to play at the commencement. This was the first trip the orchestra has taken in many years and it was greatly enjoyed by every one.

The work closed with the annual recital given May 19. There was much talent shown in this concert throughout the entire program.

With the graduation of this class, Mr. Embs will lose many valuable members but, although this always happens, each year, he succeeds in producing a better orchestra. So may this be the case next year.

B. T. T. N.

According to the custom the '15½ girls formed a Senior Club. For a long time we were without a name, not because we were unable to find one, but because we found so many suggestions that it was hard to choose the best.

After a regular Speaker-Wrangler debate at each meeting, we finally decided upon calling ourselves the B. T. T. N.

No, we had no officers—but why need we have any, with only eight girls? Nor have we any aim except that of making our girls better friends.

Hikes, wiener roasts, kid parties, etc., gave us so many incidents of school life to store away for future enjoyment when we could no longer see the friends of N. A. H. S.

You are probably waiting for our name and you certainly shall know it. How could we choose a name from so many good ones suggested, that would show our trouble and be more appropriate than, "Better This Than Nothing"?

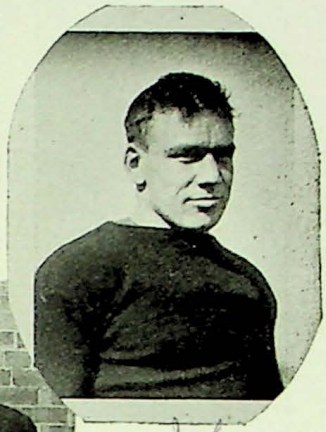
The Men Behind the Team

Coach Best

Bobbie volunteered his services. He was a faithful coach, an earnest worker, always on the look-out for the good of the team.



Coach Daniels

He was an excellent coach, one in whom the boys had confidence. It was unfortunate that he was unable to be present at the games on account of playing on the U. of L. team.

Mr. Buerk

The man who is "responsible" for the team. He supported the team to the extent of backing it with his personal credit. To him is due the fact that last year's team had the best equipment of any team in the history of our school.

Mr. Meldahl

He was an unusually good manager. He saw that there was a full schedule of good games and he managed the finances with great skill.

Clarence Rogers

He knew the game and knew how to teach it to the boys. He had the team in good shape when he left for Lexington, Kentucky.

Mr. McLinn

To him is due the credit for getting the funds to pay up the debts of the season.

SENIOR BLOTTER

ARTHUR BATES, Quarter-back

One of the finest football players N. A. H. S. has ever had full of grit, in every play. Displayed excellent judgement in running the team.

ANGUS McLEAN, End

Quiet, heady player. Best upon defense. Marked by indomitable courage and great skill in intercepting runners.

THEODORE STEIN, Tackle

His weight and courage were valuable assets to the team. He made it a point to be in every play.

CHARLES MEYER, Guard

He was a good balance to Goulding upon the other side of center. Had plenty of courage and was never afraid to break up any play, however massed.

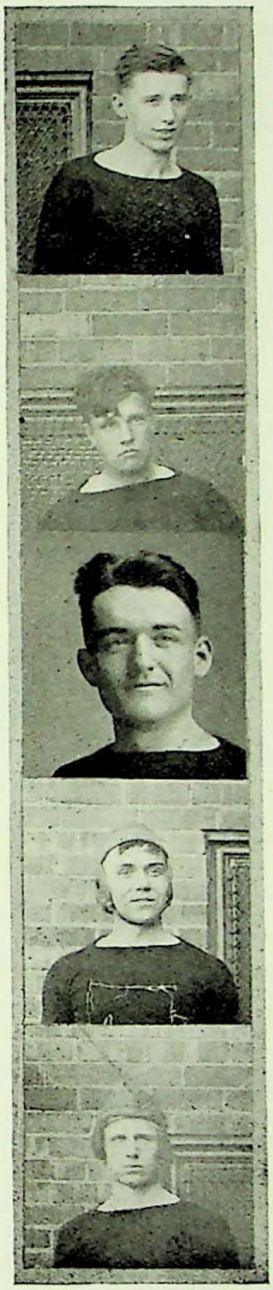
HARRY GOULDING, Guard

Consistent player. His position did not allow brilliant playing, but his team play brought substantial returns.

ROSCOE DE LOZIER, Tackle

Received his first training in the Manual Training High School. He was an excellent ground gainer. Kept his head, feet and temper, upon all occasions.

SENIOR BLOTTER



ROBERT KELSO, Half-back

Splendid runner in broken field. His great run of 85 yards in the Thanksgiving game will be remembered in football annals for many years.

DAVE STRAW, Center

A tower of strength, amiable, cool, a fine passer, a close student of the game. The enemy could never gain through his place in the line.

HARRY REED, Captain, Half-back

Very fine field captain, played with great energy and showed knowledge of the game.

ALBERT DUPAQUIER, the "Count," End

Displayed great aptitude for the game. Made the touch-down from a forward pass which won us the game from St. Joseph.

ROY RANDALL, Guard

Excellent player, earnest, a close student of the game.

STUART McLEAN, Fullback

He excelled at charging. One of the best ground gainers we have ever had. His presence would steady any team.

SENIOR BLOTTER

VARSITY BASKET BALL

The past season has been an unusually successful one for the Basket Ball Team. From the first the fellows displayed their eagerness to train and plunged in to win the games. Every man did his best, each sacrificing individual starring for teamwork. The team met the greatest disaster of the year when it lost through graduation Barney Moore, captain, considered one of the best forwards in New Albany. Although he was only with us for the first three games, in these he displayed great activity and fast playing. Barney was succeeded by Stewart McLean and later in the season Bates was chosen captain.

This year N. A .H. S. was not disappointed in the desire to play in the tournament. After winning over some of the best local teams, the boys were in good shape for a successful contest. Three games were won by the quintet before they wnt down before Salem. Although outplaying Salem in team work, the strain of three successive games told on our boys sooner than it did on our heavier opopnents.

Mr. G. Ferguson, a member of the Anderson team at the time of their state championship, coached the boys. By showing them many successful plays, he developed a strong team, which gained for N. A. H. S. the reputation of the best team work in the Falls Cities.

INTER-CLASS BASKET BALL

The Inter-Class basket ball for '15½ and '16 ended in a triumphant victory for the enthusiastic Seniors. The season was interesting and exciting throughout and marked by brilliant and fast games. The games were well attended by large crowds composed of energetic class rooters.

The tie between the Juniors and Sophs was not played off and both remain claimants for second place. The hard playing shown in the class series supplied good and capable players for a splendid Varsity.

Captains of Inter-Class Series:

SENIORS—"Stew"—By bringing the same spirit as he used in football into his game, Stewart, with his splendid leadership backed by fine team-work, was responsible for the Senior victory.

JUNIORS—"Punkie" has been a fine captain and has shown splendid ability as a leader. His fast and sure work brought the Juniors up to the top.

SOPHS—Bates has been perseverance itself during the past season. Cheering his men on to victory, he never gave up until the last, turning many seeming defeats into victories.

FRESHMEN—DeLozier—Although a new man in basket ball, DeLozier developed into a splendid leader. His team has met many defeats, but showed enthusiastic work throughout the whole season.

Mr. Hickman (manager of Junior team)—Isn't it funny that every team I have charge of, wins?

Mr. Belch—That's because you don't have anything to do with it.

SENIOR BLOTTER

THOSE WHO WON AN "N"

ARTHUR BATES—Guard. Bates was the live man of the team. His enthusiasm and strength, coupled with confidence, made him a valuable man.

ALVIN CORCORAN—Forward. Corky always did his best for general team-work. His gentlemanly conduct on the floor gained him the respect of all.

LAWRENCE MOORMAN—Center. Punkie knows the intricacies of the game and is a heady player. He is an earnest worker and knows the advantage of big feet.

CLARENCE HERZER—Forward. All the boys played earnestly, but Clarence was always substantial and enthusiastic in all his work.

ANGUS McLEAN—Guard. The defense was upheld by "Angy," playing to the utmost of his energy. Accurate passing gained him his "N."

LAWRENCE MOORE, Forward—Barney was captain last term. He played his position well and had a good eye for the basket.

HEWITT SHRADER, Substitute—Hubby was an excellent man who knew the game. He was always ready when the team needed him.

THE WINNING TEAM

The Juniors had the best team-work of all the classes in the series—and all the games in which the Juniors played were interesting. The team was unfortunate in losing their pitcher, but Arthur Bates took the box and finished up the season to the best of his ability. John Vernia took Arthur's place behind the bat and, he and Arthur, well supported by the rest of the team, made things interesting.

The team was unusually fortunate in having a great number of good hitters. Besides the boys already named, special mention is due Roy Randall, who played first base, and Joe Renn, outfielder. The Juniors are predicting a victory for themselves in the series next year and few people are contradicting them.

ALBERT DUPAQUIER, Capt. Seniors

He was the mainstay of the Senior team. He never lost his head, but was always cool. He was also a good utility man.

MAURICE STRACK, Capt. Juniors.

Much of the credit for the victories of the Junior team belongs to Maurice Strack and he deserves special mention for the good placing of his men which resulted in such excellent team-work.

RICHARD HAUSWALD, Capt. Sophs

He, as a popular captain, kept his team well together. He was respected and liked by all his men, to which is probably due the fact that the team made as good a showing as it did.

HERBERT STEIN, Capt. Freshmen

He was a good all-round man, able to play almost any position for which he was needed. He kept his team in hand so well that they didn't get into a wrangle during the season.

SENIOR BLOTTER

THE BASE BALL SEASON

During the bad weather and the many activities requiring the attention of the school, the games were not as well attended this year as they have been in previous seasons. The teams, however, played through the schedule with great zest although unsupported by a grandstand.

Kenney Fawcett knocked the only home run of the season, bringing in two men.

The series next year promises to be the most interesting in the baseball history, judging from the fact that the Juniors feel sure that they will win, the Sophomores say they will be the champions of 1917, and Mr. Belch, Freshmen manager, says that the Freshmen will be victorious.

QUIT YOUR KIDDIN'!

Sweet Stogie worked with groaning zeal
To renovate an auto wheel;
Applying paint, he made a coat.
He labored seven hours with zest,
Then lay upon the grass to rest,
Exclaiming, "My, that got my goat!"

His ma perambulating by
Heard him and answered with a sigh:
"You have no goat; you never did."
But "Stogie," erudite, with cheer
Asseverated then quite clear,
"To be exact, it got your kid."

As Mitchell had his picture took
His face was sad, his head was bent;
"Why don't you smile?" somebody asked,
"I can't," said he, "think what I've spent."

WHEN THE CAFETERIA WAS RUNNING.

Bean soup was a luxury,
Water quite a treat;
And it took a microscope to see
The things we got to eat.

The pennant did the Juniors cop,
The banner now is theirs;
And all the teams that they did meet
Are needing great repairs.

SHARP POINTERS

Quoting Mr. Sharp—"Married men" on the Blotter staff delay the issuing of the Blotter. Never again!

Make comments upon the speeches of others so that they may have an excuse for making comments upon yours.

People should not endeavor to carry a stiff upper lip. If they do, and by chance encounter the chilling glances of their fellow men, it might crack.

A hard boiled egg for lunch is oftimes more appropriate than a can of sardines in a gold fish bowl.

When at dinner, never offer the Asparagus tips.

Diligent application tranforms the hardest work into play. Have you ever noticed how few are the people that care to play?

Athletes should wear silk stockings, as this kind of hosiery promotes runners.

Never brag about being a blonde, or else people will make light of thee.

Students should not hold conversations or loiter in the halls, as this affords teachers indulging in the same pastime less privacy.

WHAT DOES HE DO NOW?

When Richard felt a pain at heart
Or indisposed with ills,
He took a trip to his health resort
On top of Silver Hills.

APPROPRIATE.

Ladies' Man—Don't you know I use a hair tonic every morning? It keeps the hair so soft.

Bored One—Is that so? What do you use, wood alcohol?

Valparaiso University

VALPARAISO, INDIANA

FOUNDED 1873

THE University was founded with the idea of giving to every person the opportunity of obtaining a thorough, practical education at an expense within his reach. That such an Institution is a necessity may be judged by the fact that each year, since the beginning the attendance has been greater than that of the previous year.

It offers excellent equipment for doing the highest grade of work in the following twenty-one departments which it maintains:

Preparatory, High School, Primary Methods, Kindergarten Methods, Commerce, Phonography and Typewriting, Review for Teachers, Education, Arts and Sciences, Engineering, Architecture, Manual Training, Agriculture, Expression and Public Speaking, Music, Fine Art, Domestic Science, Pharmacy, Law, Medicine, Dentistry.

The expenses are the lowest. Tuition $20 per quarter of twelve weeks or $65 per year of forty-eight weeks if paid in advance. Board with furnished room $29 to $41 per quarter.

A POEM.

Breathes there a man with soul so dead,
Who never to himself has said,
As he stubbed his toe against the bed,
! ! ! ! ! * * ! * ! — — ! * * * ? ? ??

ALMOST CORRECT.

The "Speakers"—A bunch of girls rounded up for gossip.

Pity—Our feeling for Freshmen.

Room 2—Training quarters for a wild west show.

Basket ball suit—Almost nothing.

ALL IN FAVOR, SAY "AYE!"

The ginks that made up Latin, made a very bad mistake; I hope for all their awful sins, they're burning at the stake.—Albert Dupaquier.

ODE TO EXAMINATIONS.

Questions to right of me,
Questions to left of me,
Questions in front of me,
Written and thundered;
Stormed at with "why" and "tell,"
Boldly I wrote and well,
But into the jaws of Death,
Into the mouth of Hell,
Rode my one-hundred.
